Bells! There is just something mystical about bells. Not those annoying, clanging school bells that announce the start of class or even the held hand ones that the teachers would ring to call us in from recess. I'm talking about those big, heavy, cast bells that are tuned to a pleasing note on the singing scale that peal throughout the day, ranging across the town. The ones that needed to be pulled by a rope to sound in the church belfry to call people to worship – that announce that something special is about to happen. I have been in a couple of parish churches that had long ropes at the entrance doors and someone had the responsibility of yanking on the rope before mass, and after mass, and especially as a toll for funerals. Stuffed in the back behind the altar is the bell that hung in the bell tower at the old Our Lady of Good Counsel church in Sharon. It is a heavy sucker that is attached to a contraption that can be wheeled out with great difficulty. We have only brought it out a couple of times for School event. It has an historical connection to the origins of our parish here, and that is why the bell remains here, waiting for some visionary plan to incorporate it into our Parish life. Someday?! I was very appreciative when the CWG decided to purchase an electronic version of the bells. It is called an 'Adagio Carillon' and it consists of a small computer, small monitor, and amplifier control system, and a set of four huge speakers that are stationed on the roof of the church. The speakers are all directed to the parking lot and away from the residences across the road. No one needs to have to deal with the phone calls and complaints that would have generated. Been there and got the t-shirt. It is programmable and we have set it up to chime on the hour and on the half hour between 8:00 am and 8:00 pm. At one time we had it set to ring the angelus at 8, noon and 6. It was also set to play songs before the Sunday masses, and we even programmed Christmas songs during the season. It has been great over the summer because it would give me warning about when to leave the garden watering and weeding and go set up for morning mass, and when I could run upstairs and shower all the dirt off of me before morning mass. It was also great during the day because it just reminded us of the time. It is easy to get lost in the depths of activities and lose all track of time. The bells served to call us back. Well, when we had that Sunday morning black out, some of our equipment was aversely affected. Our security system monitor was lost, and so too was the bell system. When the bells came on line, there was an error message and so we had to call down to the manufacturer in Cincinnati to figure out what was happening. We had to ship certain components down so they could be repaired. Fortunately our system is still under warranty so the repairs will cost us nothing. Shipping is a bit different. UPS could deliver it the next day, but that was too costly so we shipped it at a standard rate which was one fifth the price. Funny thing is, the package arrived to the destination in two days. Good call on the standard price. We are just waiting for the repairs that should take about two weeks and then they will be back, filling the air – and I think it is time again to program more songs in them, and marking time for us. I discovered that I really miss the bells. Thank you CWG for a great addition to our Parish life.

Fr. Roy

Coffee Sunday

It's that Time of the Year Registrations for First Communion & Confirmation

For those young people who are in at least Grade 2 are eligible to register for First Communion next Easter Season. Those young people in at least Grade 7 are eligible to enroll in preparations to celebrate Confirmation around Pentecost next Spring. Registration forms will be available at all the weekend Masses during the month of September. The last date for registration is Sunday, September 25, 2022 after the 11:00 am Mass. The registration form must be accompanied by a Catholic baptism certificate. If you can't find it, call the Church of baptism for a copy. Children in the Public School or home schooled will need to participate in Sacramental Preparation. Registration is for children who worship with us each week. If you belong to another parish, check with them for their requirements. The Sacraments are celebrated in the parish where you worship/belong, not in the parish where the school is located. Children who are not baptized or were baptised in a non-Catholic denomination must see either Jennifer or Fr. Roy before submitting the registration forms.
