Ruminations

For whatever reason, wherever I am, if I am going to watch the dinner time news, I watch the Barrie station. It was probably the result of growing up with two channel options, CKVR being one of them. It's not that Holland Landing ever makes the news much, nor is there any substantive coverage of the local area, it just seems like home. Years ago when my brother and I were preparing for ordination, they did put together a mini-documentary about the event, more because of my brother as a junior hockey player to priest motif. We were interviewed at the house on the deck and I remember them complaining that it cost a great deal of money to edit the sound. The crickets were chirping so loudly that it was interfering with the sound quality. When I was stationed in Simcoe County, it made sense to catch the Barrie news whether it was the old or new VR, and now it is just an affiliate with CTV. No matter, it is homey enough and local enough for me. Where else could a whole piece be done on the first maple leaves that are changing colour in Muskoka. Last week, they had a camera crew out filming a tree whose one branch had changed from green to red. I also received a picture from my cousins north of Edmonton. In this last week of August, they had received their first blanket of snow. They complained about us easterners and our heat and humidity as they were digging out boots, and mitts and cars. I guess that is just the rhythm of the seasons. The start of September, the start of school is such a time of transition. The days are noticeably shorter, the sun is noticeable lower and though little in the weather indicates it, we all know that autumn and inevitably winter are on the way. It all too emphatically becomes a metaphor for our lives. That universal exercise that begins each new class, 'what I did this summer' is actually a great exercise in reflection. It makes us probe our experiences and reminds us that we are alive, and if I traveled the world or did nothing but avoid the heat and humidity (my personal modus operandi) there is something to be gleaned and something for which to be thankful. My highlight was getting to work outside doing a lot of yard work that I have been neglecting, pruning trees and lopping of branches, cleaning out weeds and trees, and tending to stuff, it was an invigorating and life giving change of pace. Likely the hardest thing all summer was cutting out my delicious Coke Zero. The first week was hellish marked by withdrawal symptoms of headaches and dizzy spells, but there has been a marked healthiness. I must confess though, that leaves me strictly with a water menu and sometimes sitting down to popcorn and water just doesn't cut it as that enjoyable. And so as summer unofficially comes to a close with its memories and accomplishments, it is good to move on again and join in the dancing to the rhythm of life. Welcome back.

Fr. Roy

Humanitarian Relief Flooding in Kerala, India

In late July, the state of Kerala, India was devastated by severe flooding due to unusually high rainfall during the monsoon season. Over 10,000 kms of roads have been wrecked and more than 20,000 homes destroyed. To date, over 300 people have died and more than 1 million people have been displaced and are living in relief camps, including more than 175,000 children under the age of 12.

In an effort to support people in Kerala who have been impacted by this disaster, the Archdiocese of Toronto is accepting funds that will be channelled through the Kerala Catholic Bishops' Council. Funds will be used initially to provide food, drinking water, clothes and medicine to people who have been displaced. In the long term, funds will be used for the reconstruction of communities.

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website: www.archtoronto.org
- By phone through the Development Office – 416-934-3411
- Through the parish, making cheques payable to:
