Thank you for your understanding with this.

There was a recent Fire Alarm during Mass, this is a reminder that parishioners are to take the appropriate action and vacate the Church immediately and gather at the bus stop until the ALL CLEAR is given from the fire department. We are currently reviewing our fire evacuation plan and are planning a fire drill within the next few months. You will be given advance notice of the date for the fire drill.

As you know the parish is sponsoring 3 children mostly through the coins the children of our parish bring up during the offering. We received an email that one of our sponsored children, Lourdes has moved away out of the program area. We wish her well. Rather than reducing the number a new child was provided so our sponsorship remains at 3. We are now sponsoring Elsa along with Elijah and Cherline.

There is a letter from Lourdes mother, Mercedes thanking the Parish for all their support. Also, there are the pictures/information and a letter from Elsa. If you would like to read them, they are on the bulletin board in the vestibule.

FYI: Mass Intentions

The Parish Office is booking Intentions into mid October (Sundays - mid November). We encourage you to book your Mass Intentions as early as possible
