STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus announces that he is the "living bread." And we understand that the Eucharist is the center of our life in faith: in our families, parish, local church and throughout the world. We are the stewards of Christ's life in the Eucharist. We are called to put the Eucharist into action. How do we do that? St. Paul enjoins us to be always grateful, to worship, to try to understand the will of the Lord and to watch carefully how we live. What are some of the ways we can put the Eucharist into action this week? (From the August issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship e-bulletin)

Thank you for your gifts of the spiritual bouquet of prayers, masses, and rosaries which you have given me in my leaving St Charles Parish. It is very much appreciated especially as I begin the new ministry in St Laurent Parish and missions. Thank you also for the gifts of the three albs and the clergy shirts. They will certainly come in of use for me. Finally, I want to thank you all for the very fine 'farewell gathering' held on Sunday, July 26. I thank you for your good words of appreciation expressed on the occasion and of your prayers for the future. I thank you, too, for the numerous cards and gifts that I received from parishioners. My prayers are with you, at this time, in gratitude to God, as I offer you the peace and blessings of God, the Father, God, the Son, and God, the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sincerely, in Christ,
 - Father Paul Tinguely.
