Stewardship Moment- 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's first reading, the Lord speaks through the prophet Isaiah during a time of political dissolution and moral decline. The prophet had warned of God's judgment against people for the feelings of self-importance they found in their possessions, and condemned them for various forms of economic injustice such as exploiting the poor and immigrants. Good stewards know that Isaiah's message is as compelling today as it was in the time of the kingdom of Judah: Do the right thing. Offer justice and compassion toward others. Be honest in all your dealings. And remember to observe the day of the Lord. (From the August issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

"Let the peoples praise you, O God, let all the people's praise you!"
(Responsorial Psalm)

"Jesus proclaimed the good news of the kingdom and cured every sickness."
(Gospel Acclamation)

Mark your Calendars

Our annual and popular Harvest Supper will be held on Sunday September 28th. This is our parish's opportunity to offer a meal and hospitality to our neighbors and friends. At the same time we get to build community at St. Charles while we raise funds for the support of our parish.

This is a volunteer driven event for our parish. There are preparations occurring the week before the event where help is needed, more info to follow. (In Sept) Then Sunday Sept 28th is our big event that we need "all hands on deck." So please mark your calendar.

A Prayer – Keep us, O God, from all pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, and in deed. Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off all self-seeking. May we put away all pretenses and meet each other face to face, without self pity and without prejudice. May we never be hasty in judgment, and always be generous. Let us always take time for all things, and make us to grow calm, serene and gentle. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, to be straightforward and unafraid. And let us not forget, O Lord, to be kind! Amen.

Solidarity Socks on sale this weekend at St. Charles Church.

Adult size $15 and child size $5

"Solidarity Socks" are hand-knit by the St. Charles Knitting Club. Profits from the sale of the socks will be used for microfinance loans to women entrepreneurs in developing countries. It is organized through the Microchalice organization (www.microchalice.org) based in Lower Sackville, Nova Scotia. Microfinance empowers people in developing countries to take responsibility for their employment opportunities and in investing according to their own priorities.

Birthday Gals

Birthday Gals will meet at a private residence for a pot-luck lunch on Tuesday August 19th at 11:30 am. See you at 5995 Roblin Blvd. "Grey" for that day.

Check out our website at www.saintcharles.ca

Pope Francis – "The Beatitudes are the path that God indicates as an answer to the desire of happiness inherent in man, and perfects the Commandments of the Old Covenant. We are used to learning the Ten Commandments – you certainly all know them, your learned them in catechism – but we are not used to repeating the Beatitudes. Let us try to recall them and to imprint them, in our hearts. Let's do this. Agreed?"
