Stewardship: August 26th

One of the great gifts of the stewardship spirituality is the constant reminder that everything in life is a gift from God, including our relationships, especially in marriage. Husbands and wives are a gift from God to each other. In recognizing this, each naturally desire to nurture and care for the other. As St. Paul reminds us in the second reading helping each other get to heaven is one of the great joys of marriage and is an excellent example of good stewardship! Stewardship Office, The Archdiocese of Winnipeg, www.archwinnipeg.ca
