Stewardship: August 5th

"What must we do to perform the works of God?" the people ask in today's Gospel. As Disciples of Christ we too desire to know what we must do to be good Catholic Christians. St. Paul gives us a hint in the second reading today, "Clothe yourselves with the New Man". Putting on the mind of Christ means loving as he loves, giving as he gives, and serving as he serves. This is good stewardship. What gives us the confidence and courage to follow Jesus' example? The strength and nourishment we need is found in the bread of life.

Stewardship Office, The Archdiocese of Winnipeg, www.archwinnipeg.ca

In today's first reading Elijah seems ready to give up. His calling has become a burden. Yet, God gives Elijah the nourishment he needs to continue. Sometimes, in the face of the constant media barrage telling us to seek more and more pleasure and possessions, the stewardship way of life may seem burdensome. The opposite is true. People discover that a lived experience of stewardship is actually very freeing and the stewardship way of life offers many rewards. When we grow weary on the journey, we are blessed to share in the Eucharist which gives us strength. Stewardship Office, The Archdiocese of Winnipeg, www.archwinnipeg.ca
