PAPAL PRAYER INTENTIONS

That Christians may live the Gospel, giving witness to faith, honesty, and love of neighbour.

A Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus concludes his teaching about those who are "faithful and prudent stewards" with that classic stewardship teaching: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Christian stewards recognize that God is the ultimate source of their gifts, talents, resources and aptitudes, and that God wants them to use these varied gifts in his service. This week might be a good time to reflect on our God-given gifts. Are we using those gifts to serve the Lord? If Christ came back to us unexpectedly tomorrow would we be able to give a full accounting of how we have exercised stewardship over these gifts? (from the August issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Stewardship e-bulletin)

We pray for the repose of the soul of Malachy Hughes, his funeral Mass was held on July 22, 2016. May he rest in the peace of Jesus Christ.

Catechists needed

While Fr. Michael is away for studies I have been put in charge of the parish. Thanks to your help and support it has been a grace-filled experience. I would like to ask you for help finding catechists. We are looking for two catechists and a children's liturgy leader (Kara Yost did this ministry before). If you have any suggestions or are yourself interested, please let me know by email or phone the parish office. God bless. Fr. Peter
