Stewardship Reflection-5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s readings Isaiah, Paul and Peter all express their feelings of unworthiness, and sinfulness. Through the grace of God their humility becomes what one might call a healthy-humility, in that, they are not paralyzed by their weaknesses. Indeed, they find a God-grounded confidence and with courage respond joyfully and fully to God’s call in their lives. Humility is one of the virtues of the Christian disciple and steward. Healthy-humility means that “We do not think less of ourselves; it simply means that we think of ourselves less.” (C.S. Lewis)
