Stewardship Reflection-2nd Sunday in Lent

God speaks to Peter, John and James on the mountain during Jesus’ transfiguration saying, “Listen to Him”. We good stewards do well to listen to Christ’s call in our lives. The best way to discern God’s will for us is through daily prayer, and reflection on the Word of God. Taking time to seek God’s plan for us each and every day in prayer and in His Word is good stewardship. How else can we be sure how to use and share our gifts for the glory of God?

Development and Peace-Share Lent 2013
Human Dignity-More than Ever

Human dignity is the right to live without the threat of hunger. Sara Doua, 50, is a tiny woman. Her small frame seems to sag under the weight of her daily struggle to feed her family. She became a widow 15 years ago, and for a living she goes out into the bush to pick the leaves of the baobab tree, which are used to make a type of sauce in Mali, to sell at the market. It takes her about half a day to pick a bag, which she can then sell for no more than a few dollars. Last year, however, her struggle became even more difficult when her crops failed due to drought. As a consequence, she was forced to go door-to-door to ask for food from her neighbours. During the food crisis that struck the Sahel region of West Africa in the spring and summer of 2012, CARITAS MALI (a D & P partner) supported those like Sara, who were most vulnerable to experiencing food shortages. Caritas Mali organized several activities to help people cope with the insecurity of not having enough to eat, including food distributions and the subsidized sale of grains. At a food distribution supported by D & P in August of 2012, Sara received 135 kilos of maize, 25 kilos of beans and nine litres of oil, which would last her three months. "It has been at least five months since I have seen this much food in my house," she said. I won't have to go door-to-door anymore. I can go out without shame. This has helped me reclaim my dignity." She felt the joy of solidarity – the interconnectedness that leads us to extend a helping hand even to strangers an ocean away, so they can reclaim their dignity. That was your donation last year – and it was making a difference! Keep saving up for the collection on Solidarity Sunday, March 17th and have a look at the display at the back of the church. Also mark your calendar and come out for the Lenten/meager meal on Sun. March 10th at 5:30 pm in the church hall. Brenda Chaput-Saltel will speak to us on Human Dignity and use D & P profiles to share her message with us.

Crib for Pregnancy and Family Services

For a number of years we have set out a crib for the month of February to collect items for newborn babies. Perhaps a donation of a knitted sweater, receiving blankets, sleepers, or diapers. Also, if you have gently used clothing that would also be a help. Your generosity for the love of a child will be blessed.
