Day of Prayer for Sexual Abuse Victims

At the request of Pope Francis and Archbishop Richard, we are invited to make Friday March 3rd a day of fasting and prayer for victims of sexual abuse. The Mass on that Friday will be for that intention at 9AM. There will be adoration of the Blessed Sacrament (but no confessions) during the morning until 12 noon. Even if we cannot take time out to pray in public, we should offer prayers at home, work or wherever we are on this day to honor that request and so that there may be healing for the victims of sexual abuse.
