Stewardship Reflection-4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Through our baptism we each share in the prophetic mission of Jesus and this calls us to speak truth by the example of our lives. The stewardship lifestyle is swimming against the current of the 'what's in it for me', accumulate more and more stuff, way of living that our secular society touts as the best way to live. Those who have the courage to live the stewardship way may feel unpopular at times, even among those closest to them. "No prophet is accepted in his own hometown" says our Lord in today's Gospel. Committing to the stewardship lifestyle does indeed require the virtues of patience and perseverance.
