Baptism of the Lord

A YOUNG MAN, a carpenter by trade, set out from the village of Nazareth. He had heard that the son of a kinswoman of his mother Mary was preaching and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins by the Jordan River. He must have walked east along dirt roads for at least a full day towards that distant river valley.

Today, as his followers, we journey with him. Will the words of the Prophet Isaiah that we hear in in the first reading-"come to me; listen, so that you may live"-quicken our steps? What does baptism mean to us? Is it a dramatic break from our sinful past and a new commitment to love God and obey his commandments, as John says?

Sinful in a sinful society, Jesus came to the river. As John the Baptist prayed and the water poured over him, Jesus shared in our human burden. The heavens broke. A heavenly voice affirmed his divinity. His salvific work with and among us began. Are we continuing to walk with him?

This Sunday marks the end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Ordinary Time in our liturgical year. The hope of Christmas, though, never ends. We feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, heal a wounded, broken planet and find the promised peace our baptism offers.

Building a Church of Communion – In this Centennial Year of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg we are all called to help build a Church of Communion. How? By being aware and recognizing that each baptized person is endowed with indispensable gifts for the service of the Church and of the world. We are called to pursue a life of holiness and to reflect the life of the Trinity to one another.

New Envelopes

New Envelopes are available at the back of the church. Please pick yours up. When using the new envelopes in 2015 please include your name and full address for verification purposes for the first couple of envelopes. Also if you have changed you address in 2014 and have not notified the parish office please do so as soon as possible. If you noted a change on a weekly envelope it has been received. Thank you for your cooperation.
