SUNDAY January 18

World Day of Migrants and Refugees
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE CHURCH IS called to evangelize, to grow disciples. These days there are many books and programs detailing the how and why of evangelization. Today's Gospel, however, details the essential starting points of evangelization.

Evangelization begins with an encounter. John and his disciples encounter Jesus as he walks in the countryside. John shares with Andrew and the other disciple what he has come to believe, that Jesus is the Anointed One. Andrew and his friend are open to knowing more about Jesus, so they begin to follow him. Jesus makes himself available to them by asking them, "What are you looking for?" The disciples respond by asking a question of their own, which results in an invitation to "come and see," to a deeper relationship. We know that this encounter and invitation were the beginning of a lifelong relationship that changed the course of history.

Participation in the New Evangelization, which flows from our encounter and relationship with Jesus, begins with our very human care and concern for each other. These simple actions can be grounding through which others share with us what they seek and we in turn share the Good News of Jesus' saving action.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: "Jesus said to her: Give me a drink."

"Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will." (Responsorial Psalm)

"We have found the Messiah: Jesus Christ, who brings us grace and truth." (Gospel Acclamation)
