Stewardship Moment- Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel we hear Jesus calling Peter, Andrew, James and John to follow him. Following Jesus was a difficult journey for these first disciples. It is difficult for us today. Jesus wants to teach us his way of thinking, acting and encountering the world. But it is not easy for us to embrace his teaching. Good stewards of Jesus' teachings realize they are on a spiritual journey, and must learn from their experiences of being open and resistant to the gospel. They realize the need to be liberated from those actions that keep them from enjoying a closer friendship with Jesus. What is it in our lives that we need to reform? What keeps us from revealing God's glory to others?

Parish Pastoral Council – “The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew. In the Apostolic Exhortation ‘The Joy of the Gospel’ I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church’s journey in years to come.” Taken from the ‘opening’ paragraph of Pope Francis’ recent document to the Church “The Joy of the Gospel” where he invites us to see with new eyes and new vigor our role and place in our call of being followers of Christ, I am making parishioners aware of the ‘new’ direction that I am hoping to take Saint Charles Parish Pastoral Council to, using this Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Francis as our template. Some of you, parishioners, may want to be a part of this re-discovery of our faith with this very insightful guidance and proposal offered to us by Pope Francis in this very important and exciting Church document. The study and reflection of this document of 287 paragraphs will be the main focus of our Parish Pastoral Council for the next weeks and months and years at Saint Charles Parish. Those interested, please speak to me in the coming weeks and we could arrange a possible role for you on the Parish Pastoral Council. I thank you in anticipation of your consideration to this offer. - Yours truly, in Christ, - Father Paul Tinguely
