Epiphany of the Lord

TRYING TO SHARE the details of an epiphany with another is fought with complications. Most of us keep our personal experiences of the Holy to ourselves. Who would believe it or understand it? Ironically, epiphanies are made for sharing, even though they are impossible to communicate fully.

This is certainly the case of today's extraordinary Gospel story for the solemnity of the Epiphany of our Lord Jesus Christ. Today the Church celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the Magi from the East: people of good will, open to God, ready to hear and follow God's call, ever-willing to follow a star wherever it might lead. Open and starry-eyed, they are naïve, guileless, easily taken in by self-serving priests and murderous kings. They are romantic, lovable figures, pursuing truth and searching for a deep, abiding joy that the world cannot give.

The star we follow today to the manger speaks to the mind and heart of each of us. The experience of the Magi reminds us that all who make the strenuous journey to the truth will finally encounter it and be changed in the process. They can never go back to "business as usual" in life. When we meet Christ and see who he really is, we will never be the same-and only then can we hope to begin to share in his mission.

THANK YOU – First, thank you to all parishioners who helped in any way in making our celebration of Christmas an important and significant event this year. We note, especially, our Music Ministry and our young people for providing the music at the 8:00pm and at the 5:00pm Christmas Eve Masses, and to the ‘stand-in organist’ who assisted at the Christmas 10:00am morning Mass. We were provided with beautiful and spiritual music for the feast of the Birth of our Saviour. Thank you, also, to all who were involved, in one way or another, with decorating the Church for Christmas. The Church is truly lovely! Also, a great note of thanks and appreciation to those involved in the preparation of our children in the enactment of the Gospel of the Nativity at the 5:00pm Christmas Eve Mass. All in all, a time of great rejoicing and thanks! God’s Peace and Blessings to All! - Father Paul Tinguely

Centennial Message of our Archbishop Richard Gagnon:

“Our centennial should be lived ‘with thanksgiving, faith and purpose’. For despite the uncertainties of modern life, we can attest with our elder brothers and sisters of faith during the time of the prophet Isaiah, that, ‘The Lord is indeed our Father; that we are the clay, and that He indeed is the potter; and that truly we are the work of His hands.’ “We want to be a people ‘proclaiming Christ always!’”

Chili Sunday

St Charles Parish will host a dinner of Chili at Immaculate conception Parish on Sunday February 1st. Counting on you to bring chili to our guests. (More info to come).

The Church is holy, not by her own merits, but, because God makes her holy: it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit and of his gifts. It is not we who make her holy. It is God, the Holy Spirit, who in his love makes the Church holy.” - Pope Francis
