Stewardship:

When Jesus sent out the twelve apostles he acknowledged that some people would resist the Gospel message. It is natural to feel some resistance to a message that is as counter-cultural as the stewardship way of life. We need to be patient, yet persistent, in first embracing stewardship in our own lives, and then encouraging others to do the same. Above all we need to pray about it.

Our annual and popular Harvest Supper will be held on Sunday September 30th. This is our parish's opportunity to offer a meal and hospitality to our neighbors and friends. At the same time we get to build community at St. Charles while we raise funds for the support of our parish.

There will be all sorts of volunteer openings. Please reserve that Sunday.

Sunday Mass

As we enter the summer season, for our spiritual good and for our journey of faith, we cannot forget to continue to worship God during the Sundays and weekends that we are away. Please go and find the local Mass times in the locations that you find yourselves in and explore other Catholic communities scattered throughout the province, cities, and locations in Canada and, in fact, throughout the world. Happy holidays and a good vacation time to all!!!

Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha will be canonized in Rome, October 21, 2012, followed by several major celebrations planned in Rome, Canada and the United States. Because it is such a significant event for Indigenous Peoples and all the Catholic Church, especially in North America, the Executive Committee of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has established a Secretariat to assist in the flow of information on the Canonization and the surrounding celebrations. Father Thomas Rosica, C.S.B., CEO of Salt and Light Television, will be the CCCB media coordinator for the Canonization and the other celebrations in Rome. A special website will later be accessible on the CCCB website for all the events surrounding the Canonization, in Rome and also in Canada.
