Stewardship Moment

Martha and Mary are the focus of this weekend's Gospel, which abounds with rich themes about hospitality, service, and finding the right balance between action and prayerful attention to the Lord. Christians who are good stewards of their faith life realize that if they are too busy to enjoy peaceful, private time with the Lord, then something is out of balance in their spirituality. If we make time for Mass, but then carry on with our busy schedules without prayer, meditation and reflection, we are missing out. If we find ourselves anxious and harried by life's routines, could it be a sign that something in our spiritual life needs some serious attention? (from the July issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Stewardship e-bulletin)

JULY 17, 2016

Message from Fr Peter Nemcek

Thank you for the beautiful celebration and gifts that I have received during my first year as a priest from you brothers and sisters in Christ at St. Charles. First of all, a great welcome when I came to the parish last August, many smiles, support through prayers, presence, example, words and love. I believe that there is no time when a priest can say that he is a finished "product." Every priest is on the way of becoming the priest and shepherd according to the heart of Jesus. This is especially true in the first few years of priesthood when the road has not yet been traveled. During the past year you have helped me on this way and I'm thankful. I'm also thankful to Fr. Michael, our pastor, for his prayers, support, patience in journeying with a newly ordained priest.

Catechists needed

While Fr. Michael is away for studies I have been put in charge of the parish. Thanks to your help and support it has been a grace-filled experience. I would like to ask you for help finding catechists. We are looking for two catechists and a children's liturgy leader (Kara Yost did this ministry before). If you have any suggestions or are yourself interested, please let me know by email or phone the parish office. God bless. Fr. Peter

Employment Opportunity - The Archdiocese of Winnipeg is looking for a Director of Catechetics who will be responsible for the promotion, coordination, and support of the Catechetical and Sacramental Preparation programs within the Archdiocese.
