Stewardship Moment- 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's second reading, Saint Paul bids us to take comfort in knowing that when God invites us to pray to him, he knows our true needs, even if we do not. The Holy Spirit intercedes and prays for us even if we can't come up with appropriate words; even when we don't have a clue what to ask for. We are not left alone. Good stewards know that prayer is an important part of living a life in Christ. The important thing is to make space for God. Do we let God into our hearts? Do we make room for the Holy Spirit to pray within us? (From the July issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

O God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry. When I have work, help me to remember the jobless. When I have a home, help me to remember those who have no home at all. When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer.... and remembering, help me to destroy my complacency. Help me have more compassion and be concerned enough to help. By word and deed, ... those who cry out, ... for what we take for granted.
