STEWARDSHIP SAINT for July | St. Martha

Just before Jesus' final entry into Jerusalem, his close friends, Martha, her sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, entertained Jesus at their home in Bethany (John 12:1-8). Martha "served," while Mary anointed his feet. It is in the simple statement, "Martha served," that we recognize Martha for her witness to stewardship. She isn't a prolific evangelist, she doesn't work miracles. She simply serves Jesus.

Jesus may have been a frequent visitor to Martha's home and perhaps this is one of the reasons the Gospel of John reveals to us that "Jesus loved Martha, and her sister Mary, and Lazarus" (11:5). This unique statement in the gospel informs us of the special relationship Jesus had with Martha. And, as another one of Jesus' visits to Martha's home affirms, Martha continues to be concerned that Jesus be served. Like any good steward, hospitality was very important to Martha (Luke 10:38-42).

What is most revealing about Martha is on the occasion of the death of Lazarus (John 11:1-44). Martha takes an active role, going out to meet Jesus to let him know what happened to her brother while Mary stays at home. Jesus assures her that Lazarus will be raised from the dead.

With courage and conviction, Martha confesses her deep faith in Jesus Christ: "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." And then Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." When he asked Martha if she believed this, she replied: "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." (John 11:24-27).

The feast of St. Martha, a witness to service who confessed her faith in Jesus, is July 29. She is the patron saint of homemakers, cooks, domestic workers, waiters and waitresses, and hotel employees.

Martha isn't a prolific evangelist, she doesn't work miracles.

She simply serves Jesus (From the July issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship e-bulletin)

Please continue to love God and Church as I leave St Charles Parish. God is the source of our lives and to God do we offer all glory and honor! Continue that journey of faith and take to heart Pope Francis' call to take with joy the Gospel - the Good News - of Jesus Christ. Attending Mass on Sundays and making God the center of our lives is the ultimate goal of our lives which issues forth our love of neighbour! We cannot live without both, firstly, the love of God, and, secondly, the love of neighbour which issues from the first love. Pope Francis' encyclical on the 'environment' and on the 'respect of all things human' is a jewel! Please read it! And look forward to his future reflection on the 'Mercy of God' coming at year's end. Thank you for your support over my six years at St Charles Parish and let us continue to pray for each other in the hope to meet again one day in the eternal kingdom of God! God's blessings to you all.

- Sincerely, in Christ, - Father Paul Tinguely

Farewell Gathering for Father Paul

There will be an opportunity for all parishioners to gather and together express our appreciation and farewell to Father Paul.

Father Paul will be celebrating his last Sunday Mass with us on July 26. Following the 11:30am Mass on this day July 26th, (approximately 12:30pm), we will gather in thanksgiving to celebrate Father Paul's many years of service and friendship with us.

Wine, cheese etc. will complement our fellowship together. See you there.

The Office will be closed July 28-31, 2015 and will reopen on Tuesday August 4, 2015. The Parish voice mail will be monitored during this time as usual for any emergencies, please call when the Church has reopened for any administrative business. Thank you! (The bulletin has a 2 week Mass Schedule).
