Prayer of a person who is sick – O Jesus, you suffered and died for us; you understand suffering; teach me to understand my suffering as you do; to bear it in union with you; to offer it with you to atone for my sins and to bring your grace to souls in need. Calm my fears; increase my trust. May I gladly accept Your holy will and become like You in trial. If it be Your will, restore me to health so that I may work for Your honour and glory and the salvation of all people. Amen. Mary, help of the sick, – pray for me.

Stewardship Moment- 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A profound stewardship prayer is offered by the young king Solomon in today's first reading. He asks the Lord to give him an understanding heart, compassion towards God's people and the insight to distinguish right from wrong. An understanding heart, or wisdom, is a gift from God. It is a gift that enables us to make good decisions and prudent choices. Cultivating and sharing this gift is essential, especially when poor decisions and lack of compassion have consequences that affect the lives of others. Do we exercise good stewardship over the gift of wisdom? Do we share our compassionate hearts with others? (From the July issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

"Lord, how I love your law!"
 (Responsorial Psalm)

"Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom."
 (Gospel Acclamation)

"When man thinks only of himself, of his own interests and places himself in the center, when he permits himself to be captivated by the idols of domination and power, and when he puts himself in God's place, then all relationships are broken and everything is ruined. The door opens up to violence, indifference and conflict." (Pope Francis).

"You must know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is within – the Spirit you have received from God. You are not your own. You have been purchased, and at a price. So glorify God in your body". (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

A big welcome to all visitors and travelers to At Charles Parish. May God bless you in your visit.
