The Nathanael Experience

Last September, four of us from St Charles embarked on a three year journey of exploration of our Catholic faith in the Nathanael program. We joined 40 other parishioners - both young and old - from churches all over the Archdiocese. It's an exciting opportunity for spiritual growth and for discovering more beauty of our Catholic faith! For example, is your prayer life getting a little boring? Did you know there are many different forms and approaches to prayer? Some are quite ancient such as Franciscan, Ignation, Augustinian, and Thomistic. One of them may be all you need to rekindle a deeper prayer with Our Lord! Nathanael has no exams or heavy homework assignments. One does not have to be a scholar. Instead, we listen to thought-provoking lectures and meaningful faith sharings. Scripture, liturgy, music and even Canon Law are presented in a fascinating fashion. The next Nathanael begins after ours is completed in the year 2020. You may think it's a long time away, but time flies by quickly. Consider joining the next one. Give your soul a treat! It may be the best decision you will ever make! Yours in Christ!
