Stewardship Reflection

The Virtue of Humility and Stewardship

Humility does not mean that you think less of yourself; that serves no purpose. God wants you to use your gifts well, for your own needs, and at least as well for the good of others. Acknowledging that life itself, and all the good things in life, are God's gift, is an expression of humility. Knowing that God gives you your talents and abilities for the greater good, as well as your own needs, should give you a 'healthy humility' and the God-grounded confidence to boldly and generously share your gifts in ways that give glory to Him.

HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS (June)

Offered in Solidarity with Pope Francis

General: Mutual Respect - That a culture of dialogue, listening, and mutual respect may prevail among peoples.

Mission: New Evangelization - That where secularization is strongest, Christian communities may effectively promote a new evangelization.

"My soul thirsts for you, O Lord my God." (Responsorial Psalm)

"My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them and they follow me." (Gospel Acclamation)

Crossroads

Please welcome Crossroads back, this weekend! Taking steps to save lives. This organization exists in order to bring about a Culture of Life and defend the right to life of all unborn children. Crossroads especially looks to involve and challenge young people to actively take part in bringing it about, and will be speaking to us this weekend. These young people are asking for our prayers and support.

MEETINGS/EVENTS SCHEDULE

Tues	25	1:00 pm	Crafts and Conversation, (last meeting until Sept)
Wed	26	1:00 pm	Cards

Erin Kinsella will be leaving her position as Archdiocesan Director of Youth Ministry effective June 15, 2013. Erin is relocating to Toronto where she will serve as Associate Director of Campus Ministry at the Newman Centre, University of Toronto. We are grateful for her three years of service to the Archdiocese and wish her well.

JOB OPPORTUNITY: The Parish is seeking a permanent part-time Maintenance Person to provide maintenance and custodial care to the buildings (Church and Rectory) and surrounding grounds of St. Charles Parish. The incumbent handles mechanical and electrical maintenance, building maintenance, and grounds keeping activities. A Job Poster describing the duties, listing the requirements and qualifications for the position can be obtained at the office at the back of the church or by contacting the Parish Office. Applications must be received by July 8, 2013.

The annual St Charles Parish "Outdoor" Mass

is this Sunday, June 23, at 10:00am. (Weather permitting and will be on the cemetery grounds behind the Church, otherwise, it will be held in the Church, as per usual). This year's special treat will be the 'burning of the church's mortgage' which will be done at the end of Mass on the cemetery grounds. Come one come all, our picnic will follow afterwards.

St Charles Parish is currently on the "Summer" Sunday Mass Time Schedule of 10:00am. This will remain in effect until Sunday, September 8, 2013. The Saturday Mass time of 4:00pm remains the same, as per usual.

SAVE THE DATE: Just a reminder that St. Charles Parish will be hosting the second annual Craft and Bake Sale on November 16 and 17. We will also have a "New and Nearly New" table - so we will gratefully accept items that you no longer need. For further information call Lori 204-832-2901.

Recent rectory upgrades - An informational note to all parishioners that the 're-shingling work' on the Rectory roof was recently completed. The work was sorely needed. Thank you to the contractors who did the work. Also, a number of branches on the trees located on the front of the rectory lot were trimmed. Again, this was 'needed' work. Thank you to the tree pruners.

Last rummage/basement sale for the season is on June 28th @ Assiniboia Christian Centre on Portage Avenue from 5:00 to 7:30pm. Lots of terrific buys.

Christian Maturity - In this Year of Faith, let us grow more and more in 'Christian maturity'. Here are "two more reflections" that can help us in that endeavour. (The last two reflections will appear next Sunday). Please read them.

7) Live in an ever-greater transparency and honesty: we are as sick as our sickest secret, but we are also as healthy as we are honest. Maturity does not mean that we are perfect or faultless, but that we are honest.

8) Pray both affectively and liturgically: the fuel we need to resource ourselves for gratitude and forgiveness does not lie in the strength of our own willpower, but in grace and community. We access that through prayer. We are mature to the degree that we open our own helplessness and invite in God's strength and to the degree that we pray with others that the whole world will do the same thing.

- (Taken from Prairie Messenger March 20, 2013, from the article written by Ron Rolheiser, o.m.i. 'The 10 major imperatives that reside inside human maturity').

DID YOU KNOW? - Sharing God's Gifts

Recently you all received a letter from Fr. Paul, providing you with the Parish 2012 Financial Statement and some information on Sharing God's Gifts. The Finance Committee felt it important for all parishioners to understand what Sharing God's Gifts is about and decided to publish a monthly "DID YOU KNOW" item in the bulletin, today's being the first.

Sharing God's Gifts is about the greater Church beyond the boundaries of St. Charles. It is all our responsibility to support the Church as a whole and not just the Parish needs.

Each year the Archdiocese sets a target for itself to meet the many needs of the Diocese. From there each Parish is given a target. This year our target is $36,940 (a 2.8% increase over 2012). Our target is based on the previous year's offertory collections and the average number of parishioners over the past 3 years. Our target also considers our support for St. Charles Catholic School and would be higher if we did not support the school.

As outlined in Fr. Paul's letter there are many options for donating. Please give generously. Thank You.
