Stewardship Reflection

Trinitarian Stewardship: God the Father, creator and giver of who we are and all that we possess; God the Son, our redeemer, and supreme teacher of Christian Stewardship; God the Spirit, the activator, the Holy Spirit guiding how we are to use our gifts. The bottom-line is that one day we will all be held accountable for how we shared the gifts we were given; how we responded to what we were taught; and, how we acted when inspired. When that day comes, we pray that through God's grace we will hear the words, "Well done good and faithful steward!"

(Stewardship Office, The Archdiocese of Winnipeg, www.archwinnipeg.ca)

St. Charles 9:30 choir needs new members. We are sending you some information on the benefits of singing, not only for the soul, but also for healing and well-being.

Here are some statements compiled from a Globe and Mail article.

Singing, especially in choirs, is good for the body, mind and soul, no matter what your age or ailment.

Singing reduces pain perception and acts as pain diversion.

Singing improves breathing and posture, improves our social, spiritual and emotional well being. It is helpful for the heart and immune system. It promotes better sleep, relieves asthma, elevates energy, alleviates depression, reduces stress, gives a natural high.

From the Bible comes this verse:

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice and sing praise." from Miguel de Cervantes, Spanish poet ad novelist comes this: "He who sings scares away his woes."

Madeline Coopsammy for the Choir

'Prayer for depression'

– Many people suffer episodes of depression. St. Ignatius of Loyola (the founder of the Jesuit Order) was one of them.

Over 500 years ago he wrote this prayer to overcome depression and anxiety:

"O Christ Jesus,
when all is darkness
and we feel our weakness and helplessness,
give us the sense of Your presence,
Your love,
and Your strength.
Help us to have perfect trust in Your protecting love,
and strengthening power,
so that nothing may frighten or worry us,
for, living close to You,
we shall see Your hand,
Your purpose,
and Your will,
through all things. - Amen."

Saint-Boniface Diocesan Gathering, for young adult and youth (12+) May 31st, 2013. Bilingual evening with Fr Thomas Rosica, c.s.b. from Salt and Light. No cost. Call Michelle at 204-594-0278. More details on the bulletin board.
