With grateful hearts for our Pastor:

We are so very grateful, Fr. Michael, for the many gifts and expressions of love you bring to our community:

for drawing us together and leading us in worship, especially in these difficult days, for your personal visits in our homes, for your untiring comfort you bring to us in sickness showing us the genuine compassion of Christ, for blessing our marriages, for baptizing and loving our children, for celebrating and confirming us all in the variety of vocations to which we have been called, for supporting us so meaningfully in our time of bereavement, for inspiring us to always grow in faith, for encouraging and enabling us to be active and take leadership roles in our community, for helping the whole community realize God's presence among us as we build a Church of communion here at St. Charles.

For our part, we pray that we may always be attentive to your needs Fr. Michael and never take you for granted. We at St. Charles, along with many others you have touched over these years of your ministry, extend to you our friendship and love.
