celebrating 50 years of solidarity this year. We have organized a party for all our friends and family – A CONCERT which will take place on Sat., May 27th at the West End Cultural Centre. We have three great performers. Our opening act is The Bahatizz which is a group of four exuberant sisters from the Congo. Their music is part African, part R'n'B and part pop. Then Trio Bembe will entertain – a Latin jazz trio. Their music fuses many Latin and African influences. Closing will be Marco Castillo and the Brazilian Beats. Marco comes from Brazil where some of D&P's longest and most influential partners come from. This concert is open to all ages and we have graded ticket prices so that everyone can attend. Please check out the posters on the doors of the church for more information. WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THE CELEBRATION!!! Tickets: <http://50yearssolidarity.eventbrite.ca> or call the West End Cultural Centre at 204-783-6918.

Cost is a free-will donation. Please register with Ted and Nancy Wood, 204-885-2260, stcharlesretreat@hotmail.com
