Being called by God to give the Body and Blood of Christ to your brothers and sisters is a very humbling and sacred gift. It is a call by Our Lord to "Feed my lambs." This call comes with responsibilities and Communion Ministers should understand the significance of their ministry. In order to assist new and current communion ministers with a better understanding of their ministry and its importance, there will be a Communion Minister's Workshop on Saturday November 24th from 10 am to 12:00 noon in the Church hall. All ministers of communion are encouraged to attend this presentation.

MIXED RETREAT; DECEMBER 1, 2012 at St. Charles Parish

"What is a MIXED RETREAT?" you ask. It is a day long (9 to 3:00) time of quiet and reflection on topics of a spiritual nature that affect our lives. It is called "mixed" as both men and women are invited, individuals as well as couples. This year the topic will be A NEW LOOK AT ADVENT. Father John Kratcher will present reflections on this subject and lead us in seeing how we are individually and collectively touched by the season of Advent. Cost of the retreat is 20.00$ and includes lunch and snacks. Celiac Concern - Celiac is an auto-immune condition caused by a reaction to gluten protein found in wheat and other common grains. In the Catholic Church, the required use of "wheat flour" for hosts may preclude most gluten sensitive individuals from receiving Holy Communion. St Charles parish, compassionate to the needs of her parishioners, is seeking to provide an acceptable means or a solution, whereby, all, or, as many persons, as possible, may participate in the reception of Holy Communion. To help us meet that outcome, Fr. Paul Tinguely would like to meet with those persons who are most affected by celiac disease. With this in mind, parishioners with celiac concerns and/or family members are invited to attend a gathering/meeting with Fr Paul and his designate on Thursday, November 22, 7:00pm at the church. Your enlightenment / suggestions will be most helpful in helping us move towards a positive solution and outcome of this situation. Thank you.

As promised, the last 5 sessions of the Adult Formation Series "Catholicism." The 1st session will be presented this Tuesday, November 20, at 7:00 pm, "The Mystical Union of Christ and the Church," in the Church hall.
