Crafts & Giggles Tuesday, Nov 5 at 1 pm

We must meditate before, during and after everything we do. The prophet says: "I will pray, and then I will understand." This is the way we can easily overcome the countless difficulties we have to face day after day, which, after all, are part of our work. In meditation we find the strength to bring Christ to birth in ourselves and in others.

- St. Charles, patron saint of catechists and bishops.

Return of 'Living Stations of the Cross': Lent 2020

Years ago, St. Charles created and hosted this very popular version of the Stations of the Cross every Friday in lent for many years in a row and attracted many attendees. In this version, each station is depicted tableau style, where the actors are posed and silent. A return of this presentation is being planned for this up-coming lent and a new soundtrack is already being recorded on modern equipment by current parishioners. The call is going out for actors (Mary, Jesus, Pilate, servant-boy, Roman Guards, Simon of Cyrene, John, Veronica, women of Jerusalem, people in the crowd etc.) and behind the scenes helpers (set-up, take-down, sound, lighting, costumes, props, make-up, greeters etc.). The time commitment will be the last three Fridays of lent and possibly Good Friday (that is: March 13, 20, 27 + April 3? of 2020) as well as a couple dates for casting and costume meetings this November (TBD). If you would like to participate, please leave your name and email on the sign-up sheet or talk to Lorraine Thibert (204-889-1101). If you are interested in a particular role or duty, or cannot make every date, let Lorraine know - we could double cast if necessary.

We will be saying Rosary.

"Freedom to Choose: The Gift of Indifference,"

Mon., Nov.11, 2019, 9:30 - 3:30

A day-long retreat offered by Chemin Neuf Community at the St. Charles Retreat Centre. St. Ignatius uses the word "indifference" to describe a disposition of openness to know and do what God wills for us. A beautiful idea, but how do we come to a place of indifference? During this day we will seek some answers from the Scriptures and St. Ignatius, as well as our own prayer and life experience. Please to call register 204-885-2260 or stcharlesretreat@hotmail.com

Do you ever struggle with how you can discuss the pro-life viewpoint without upsetting your friends and neighbours? Join pro-life speaker, author and podcast host, Jonathon Van Maren at the Life's Vision annual banquet to learn about the successful strategies Jonathon has used to build bridges regarding the subject of abortion. Prior to the banquet, from 1:00-3:00 PM, Jonathon will be presenting on the topic of euthanasia and medically assisted suicide.
