Testimonies

I decided to join the Catholic Women's League a few years ago because, as a Catholic woman, I felt it was my duty to support this important national voice. They are the only national women's organization that goes to the government with issues resolutions. Even though I won't have a lot of time for meetings until perhaps I retire, I can stay informed through the newsletter.

Lorraine Thibert

This summer I attended the National Catholic Women's League Convention in Charlottetown. I was very impressed by our leaders who are intelligent, well spoken, and self-confident women. The Liturgies and meetings were well run and interesting. The convention was a great opportunity for me to meet like-minded women from other parishes across Canada who face similar challenges. What impressed me most was the affection between many members from life long friendships. I believe being a CWL member has a valuable, positive affect on my life. It makes me feel that I am part of something "bigger than myself" and that I am making a difference in my parish and community. These are some of the reasons that I am a member of the Catholic Women's League and I invite you to consider becoming a member as well.

Eva Arsenault

I have been a member of the C.W.L. for some years. It is a time of fellowship, praying with the Virgin Mary ever present, and a time for peace and love. It is an organization who advocates for those who can't speak for themselves, reaching out to developing countries.

Like many of my C.W.L. friends going through the loss of a loved one, I was having a difficult time dealing with the loss of my husband. I appreciated that God had been good to us-giving us 60 wonderful years together as well as healthy children and grandchildren. However, I had questions, like why did my husband have to suffer with Alzheimer's for years. I remember one time when I was feeling particularly lonely, sitting around the table with some of my C.W.L. friends, listening to them reassure me that when my time came, I would meet up with my husband in heaven. Of course, my first reaction was "I want to go now." However, God had other plans for me. He made me realize that I am not alone in this journey. This connected me with other women of my faith which has made me grow with my relationship with God.
