Stewardship Moment- 29th Sunday in Ordinary time, World Mission Sunday

Organized by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, World Mission Sunday is an important day in the life of the Church because it reminds Catholics worldwide about the importance of giving: “...as an offering made to God, in the Eucharistic celebration” and for the missionary activity of the Church (see Redemptoris Missio 81). We are reminded, as stewards and disciples, that it is the Lord through His universal Church, who we are called to serve - with the same love that He gives to each of us. (From the October issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

The Rosary will be held Wednesday evenings starting at 6:00 pm in the Church throughout October. The next rosary is this Wednesday October 22nd. All are welcome!

St. Charles Pro-Life Group Life's Vision Fundraising Banquet is on November 8, 2014 at the Victoria Inn, 1808 Wellington Avenue. Cocktails will be at 6:00pm and Dinner is at 7:00pm. The theme is Growing the Culture of Life: learn the facts about euthanasia and physician-assisted suicide with Bobby Schindler, the director of Terri Schiavo Life and Hope Network. Mr. Schindler has first hand knowledge of what is happening to the medically vulnerable and disabled from the threat of euthanasia. He is the brother of Terri Schiavo, the woman who was killed by starvation and dehydration through a court decision. Recently a poll, conducted by Ipsos Reid, asked respondents if a physician should be able to help terminally ill persons end their life if they ask for it. They found that 83% of Catholics polled agreed with legalizing assisted dying. As Catholics we need to know the facts and must be equipped to defend the most vulnerable of our society. St. Charles Pro-Life Group would like to sponsor a table this year. Tickets for a table are $45 each. If you are interested in attending, please contact Angela Bowman at (204) 804-8155.
