Stewardship Moment- The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Today's second reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Christian community at Philippi offers that beautiful testimony of Christ Jesus who loved us enough to give up his life for us by death on a cross. There is great hope in the cross, yet very few of us will be called to die the way Jesus died. Saint Paul helps us understand that to be authentic stewards of our faith we must be willing to lay down our lives for Jesus. To be faithful to the Gospel is to be willing to take up our cross daily and follow him. In that way we will find our dying and our rising equally assured. Reflect this week on how you embrace the cross, and how you, at times, shirk the cross in your daily life. (From the September issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

"Do not forget the works of the Lord!"

(Responsorial Psalm)

"We adore you, O Christ and we praise you, because by your Cross you have redeemed the world."

(Gospel Acclamation)
