Stewardship Moment- 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In Saint Paul's letter to the Romans he suggests that God lavishes his love upon us through Jesus Christ, who calls us to the kind of loving relationship, if we so choose it, that demands accountability. It is like, in Saint Paul's vocabulary, a kind of "debt" that we can never "pay-in-full." But we begin to repay by following the direction of one of the most familiar statements in the Bible: "Love your neighbor as yourself. "Good stewards realize that God does not call them just to love those who are easy to love, but to love the unloved and the hard-to-love people in this world as well. This week, remind yourself: "I am put here as an ambassador of God's love." (From the September issue of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, Catholic Stewardship)

"O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord. Do not harden your hearts!" (Responsorial Psalm)

"In Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us."

(Gospel Acclamation)

An Evening Prayer - Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your Angels and Saints charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And all for your love's sake. Amen. - St Augustine.
