BOOK FAIR

We invite all parishioners for an outdoor book fair organized after all Sunday masses on July 10th and July 24th, 2022. There will also be donuts available to enjoy.

If anyone is interested in helping with Set-up, please contact Maria at 905-319-3528

KOALA CHANGING TABLE

We are so happy to see many young families joining the parish. Thanks to a generous financial donation, we were able to use that money to purchase and install a new Koala Kare baby changing table in the church washroom.

SUMMER TIME

When vacationing, Catholics should do all they can to participate in Sunday Mass. We are aided in fulfilling our Sunday obligation not only because the Church is truly universal and therefore active in countries worldwide but also because there are typically Saturday vigil Masses and more than one Sunday Mass to choose from in most places you visit.

So if you plan on being in a remote place on a Sunday, perhaps you could participate in a Saturday vigil Mass. Or perhaps you could participate in an early Sunday morning Mass. Don't simply see the Mass as an obligation; remember how it is "the source and summit of the whole Christian life" (CCC 1324, citing Vatican II, Lumen Gentium 11). That will help remind you that Sunday Mass should be a very important part of your vacation.
