JULY - MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

The month of July is dedicated to the Most Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. Devotion to the Precious Blood is a spiritual Obligation, and that not only for priests but for every follower of Christ. About 96 A.D. says pope St. Clement I: "Let us fix our gaze on the Blood of Christ and realize how truly precious It is, seeing that It was pured out for our salvation and brought the grace of conversion to the whole world".

Prayer to the Most Precious Blood:

*Eternal Father,
we offer you the Precious Blood of Jesus,
in atonement for our sins,
in supplication for the holy souls in Purgatory,
and for the needs of the Holy Church. Amen.*

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi Memorial Day July 21

When his novitiate was over, Saint Lawrence of Brindisi continued to pursue his studies. He was highly successful in the study of philosophy and theology and acquired so thorough a command of foreign languages that he was able to preach in French, Spanish, German, Greek, and even in Hebrew. He ascribed his success not so much to his talents as to the special help he received from Mary, the Seat of Wisdom, whom he honored with tender devotion.

With such accomplishments Father Lawrence started out on a highly fruitful missionary life. At first, he visited the various cities in Italy; Venice, Pavia, Verona, Padua, Naples, where his labors were blessed with remarkable success. He was then called to Rome, where he was entrusted with the conversion of the Jews. His thorough knowledge of the Hebrew language won for him the esteem of the rabbis, and his gentle manner led many an Israelite to baptism. In 1598 Saint Lawrence of Brindisi was sent to Germany with eleven other friars to establish Capuchin convents there and to counteract the heresy of Luther, which was at that time gaining a foothold in Austria.
