The Library filled with books for adults and children will be open after each mass next weekend.

We have several new books which Fr. Ron Rohlheiser considers some of the best reads of 2014. Two of these are: Learning to Walk in the Dark by Barbara Brown Taylor who befriends the darkness in nature and ourselves a blessing, and In Her Wake by Nancy Rappaport - A fifty some year old Child Psychiatrists who explores the mystery of her mother's suicide, recommended to anyone who lost a family member or friend to suicide. We have other new titles, come to the library and see. The library is open twice a month on each second and fourth weekend.

Catholic Education Week 2015 begins on Sunday, May 3rd. The Catholic schools in our parish will engage in a series of events to celebrate the ongoing gift of publicly-funded Catholic education. You are invited to discover what celebrations are happening in your children's school and if possible, attend. Publicly-funded Catholic education has existed in Ontario since 1841 and its graduates have served Ontario and Canada very well. The current generation of students in our publicly-funded Catholic schools will serve with the same spirit and generosity as has been exemplified by the graduates of previous generations.
