KOTTAR
A Vibrant Missionary Diocese of India!

The diocese of Kottar is the southernmost ecclesiastical unit of India, comprising the district of Kanyakumari, in the State of Tamil Nadu. According to a persistent oral tradition, Christianity reached the southern part of India through the missionary efforts of St. Thomas the Apostle. Later, St. Francis Xavier, the great Jesuit missionary, evangelized this area in the 16th century (1542-1549). Kottar was erected as a separate diocese in 1930. Though small in territory, the diocese of Kottar is densely populated. There are about two million people in an area of just 645 sq. miles. Catholics constitute about 20% of the population. Fishing and farming are the main traditional occupations of the Catholic community here.

Our Needs and Concerns

The major concerns of the diocese of Kottar are: Evangelization, Fostering Vocations to the Priesthood and the Religious Life, Education, and Socio-economic Development.

We need your help and prayers for the success of the mission work of the diocese of Kottar: These are our pressing needs:

- Evangelization – deepening the faith and spreading the Gospel
- Training catechists and other leaders among the Laity for Gospel work
- Fostering vocations to the priesthood and the religious life
- Constructing/repairing small functional mission buildings to be used as places of worship
- Improving the socio-economic condition of the poor
- Promoting dialogue and understanding among Christians, Hindus and Muslims
- Establishing and strengthening small Faith Sharing Communities

The Asian Tsunami

The diocese of Kottar was severely hit by the recent Asian tsunami of December 26, 2004. More than 900 people, almost all of them Catholics, lost their lives; 33 villages and hamlets were badly damaged, and thousands were rendered homeless. With assistance from agencies, especially with help from the Bishops' Conferences of USA and Canada, the diocese of Kottar is coordinating efforts to construct houses for those affected.

On December 2, 2012, the Servant of God Devasahayam Pillai (1712-1752), a native of Kottar diocese and a Catholic convert from Hinduism, was declared a Martyr on the occasion of his Beatification at St. Xavier's Cathedral, Kottar.

Contact: Rev. Paul Leon Varuvel Mission Coordinator for the diocese of Kottar Christ the King Seminary, 711 Knox Road, East Aurora, NY 14052 716-652-4303. pvaruvel@cks.edu

(Fr. Paul Varuvel, originally from Kottar, was Vicar General there. Currently, he is teaching at Christ the King Seminary in the diocese of Buffalo, NY)
