Heart to Heart - A Note from Bishop Crosby...

THE THIRD EDITION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL WILL BE IMPLEMENTED on the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011. While the official decree has not yet been published, the date has been set by the CCCB Executive Committee in consultation with the Permanent Council. Additionally, on September 25th, our Diocese will begin celebrating according to the norms of the revised General Instruction of the Roman Missal. Catechetical material which will assist in the implementation of these changes will be available through the CCCB Publication Services and our Diocesan Liturgy Office. The Missal itself is currently being prepared for printing. It is foreseen that there will be two editions of the new English translation, a chapel edition and a full-size edition. Advance order forms for the Missal will be sent to you soon from our Liturgy Office.

EAT LOCAL – and help lessen the harmful toxic emissions from long distance transports. Local fruits and vegetables retain more nutrition that is lost in long distance travel. Many local farmers reduce or eliminate pesticide use, treat their animals well, conserve soil and water and reduce energy use. Use the map in next week's bulletin to find where you can have fun picking your own fruits and vegetables or just visit and buy from local farmers. Pay special attention to those that are Certified Organic, are pesticide free and don't inject their animals with hormones and antibiotics.
