From the Regina Mundi Refugee Sponsorship Committee... Since the Second World War, Canada has welcomed refugees as part of the 1951 Refugee Convention. Of the 300,000 immigrants coming yearly to Canada, only 8,000 have been refugees. In 2016, a record number of 25,000 refugees were welcomed into Canada. The flow of refugees has now slowed as this political promise has been met. We pray that our country will develop a fair plan to accommodate newcomers and to ensure their successful adjustment to Canadian life.
