As we celebrate Mother's Day, let us remember those in our midst that because of fear do not wish to honor motherhood as they are considering aborting a child. Should we encounter such an individual during the course of next year, let us share Christ's peace with her to overcome her fears and deliver her child unharmed into this world. In doing so, we can assist her in joining the ranks of mothers that we honor each and every year.

Please join Catholics throughout the world in praying for a generous response to the call to priesthood, consecrated life, the missions and lay ministry. In his message for this 48th World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Benedict XVI states: "It is important to encourage and support those who show clear signs of a call to priestly life and religious consecration, and to enable them to feel the warmth of the whole community as they respond 'yes' to God and the Church."
