A warm thank you to the "BOX J Boys", great TiCat supporters, for a $320 donation to our St. Vincent de Paul Society. The funds were collected at the annual Labour Day Tailgate party in memory of the late Johnny Millar. Johnny died quite suddenly early this month and was an original member of the group.

PREPARING FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NEW REVISED ROMAN MISSAL

LITURGY CHANGES COMING – 1

On the First Sunday of Advent (November 27, 2011) Catholics in Canada and in most English-speaking countries throughout the world will begin to use a new edition of the Roman Missal. The Roman Missal is the book containing all the prayers used during the celebration of Mass. From the late fourth century until 1970 Catholics throughout the world celebrated Mass in Latin. Since 1570, the universal Church celebrated Mass using the Missal published by Pope Pius V following the Council of Trent, albeit with minor additions. Following the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), Pope Paul VI issued a new Missal in Latin and gave permission for the prayers of the Mass to be translated into the various languages of the people who would gather to celebrate Mass. The Missal that we currently use was produced in 1970 and slightly updated in 1975. It was the first edition of the Missal to be published and approved by the Holy Father for use in English.

In 2002, Pope John Paul II issued a new Latin edition of the Roman Missal which included additional prayers for the celebration of Mass in honour of newly-canonized saints and for certain feasts and other occasions. Since that time the Bishops, and other experts associated with them, have been engaged in the arduous task of translation. They have not only been translating new texts, but also revising existing texts in accord with a new set of guidelines for translation which were published by the Vatican in 2001. The document is called Liturgiam Authenticam. Now that the work of translation has been completed and the Holy Father has approved the newly-translated texts, the Canadian Bishops are able to publish a new Canadian edition of the Roman Missal. This new edition is the only version of the Roman Missal that is authorized for use in Canada beginning on November 27, 2011.

See the bulletin articles which will be published during the coming weeks for more information about the changes you can expect at Mass beginning in Advent.
