PREPARING FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NEW REVISED ROMAN MISSAL

LITURGY CHANGES COMING – 4

So, what are the changes? As the song says: Let's start at the very beginning!

Following the Sign of the Cross the priest greets the assembly with the words: The Lord be with you. The new response will be: And with your spirit. These words accurately translate the Latin: Et cum spiritu tuo, and will bring English-speaking Catholics in line with all other language groups. The greeting is taken from the Book of Ruth (2.4) and the response is found in many of the greetings in the letters of St. Paul. For St. Paul, the spirit is that place deep within each person which is closest to God. The greeting of the priest and response of the people express our awareness of the presence of the Holy Spirit in all. The people's response especially acknowledges the presence of the Spirit, conferred on the priest at Ordination, to celebrate the Eucharist for the People of God. Each time this greeting is extended during the Mass, the response is the same.

Participants at Mass will notice a few word changes in the other greetings of the priest. For example, the first greeting in the Missal reads: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. The word "communion" replaces "fellowship" and more accurately translates the Latin: communicatio. The word "communion" is a rich theological word which expresses the unique relationship between the persons of the Blessed Trinity, and the unique relationship which exists among the baptized.

The second greeting which the priest may use has also been retranslated. However, the changes were made here simply to reflect the word order of the Latin, the same word order that is found in Paul's Letters.

Parenting Tip – Building a relationship with our children provides life time benefits for everyone. One element involved with this is teaching our children our family values; this means being specific about what is and what is not acceptable behavior. In fact, a survey of 5,500 teenagers done by National Young Drivers Association showed that risky driving behavior, including not wearing a seat belt, drinking and driving and cell phone use while driving was strongly associated with the way teens and parents communicate and approach rules about safety. Being supportive of our children, setting clear rules and paying attention to where our children are going has measurable positive results in their behavior. (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office, 905-528-7988 ext. 2250)

Marriage Tip of the Month: Fall we assess our homes in preparation for the winter ahead. Why not take some time to prepare your relationship for those inevitable stormy moments which every relationship encounters? Spend some time together sharing future goals, go on a date and spend time together, or better still, consider signing up for a Marriage Encounter/ Enrichment weekend and reconnect in a way that will weather any storm. Spending time on your relationship is sure to boast a bountiful harvest. (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office, (905) 528-7988 ext. 2250.
