Thank you very much for your generous support of World Mission Sunday last week. Your prayers and donations will make a huge contribution to the growth of the Church and to the well-being of the poor of our world. Please continue to pray for all those who serve in mission countries that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ's message of love to those they serve – the world's most vulnerable.

PREPARING FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NEW REVISED ROMAN MISSAL

LITURGY CHANGES COMING – 5

The words for the Penitential Act have been significantly revised to accurately translate the Latin text. In the first option, commonly known as the Confiteor, we have a return to an older English version of the text – the one used during the experimental period before 1970.

The priest invites all to acknowledge their sins and so prepare themselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries. Then, after a brief silence, all say together:

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The addition of the words: greatly sinned translate the Latin: peccavi nimis, and echo the words of King David who acknowledged his sin before the Lord (1 Chronicles 21.8). The words: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault, are a direct translation of the Latin: mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. As these words are spoken, all strike their breast once. The word: therefore, in the next line translates the Latin: Ideo. Because we have sinned, we therefore turn to Mary and the saints and seek their intercession before God.

The second option has been recast in English and wonderfully echoes the Scripture texts on which it is based.

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.

All: For we have sinned against you.

Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

All: And grant us your salvation.

The first two lines of the Penitential Act 2 are based on the Book of Baruch 3.2. The second two lines are taken from Psalm 85.8, a text which we use as a Responsorial Psalm during Advent.

The third form of the Penitential Act, which is in the form of a litany, has changed very little and provides a model for additional texts which may be freely composed by the priest.
