Holy Thursday ... The church will remain open until 11 p.m. and after Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be reserved at the Altar of Repose, which will be located in the parish hall. You are encouraged that night to make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament. All are welcome to attend Night Prayer at 10:45 p.m.

Good Friday ... UNIVERSAL DAY OF FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

On Good Friday, the Church asks that we fast from food and abstain all day from eating any type of meat. Fasting means that we should eat only one meal on Good Friday and avoid any snacking. The age for abstinence is 14 and 60 for fasting. Bear in mind that these ages were established years ago by the church when food was not as plentiful and nutrition not as accessible as it is today. Therefore, if you are in good health, the spirit of these disciplines would be to practice them regardless of age. On Good Friday, we should also refrain from doing any unnecessary work and avoid activities such as shopping.

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum, three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today's Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they shouted blessings and praise to God. This event is reported in each of the four Gospels.

Luke's Gospel is the only one to report the exchange between Jesus and the Pharisees as Jesus enters Jerusalem. Jesus' response shows that this event, and those yet to come, are part of a divine plan. We hear this echoed again in Luke's description of the Last Supper when Jesus speaks of Judas' betrayal, saying that the Son of Man "goes as has been determined."

At the Liturgy of the Word on this Sunday, the events of Jesus' passion are proclaimed in their entirety. This year, as we are in the cycle of C, we read the passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Luke. On Good Friday, however, every year we read the passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John.

Throughout Luke's Gospel we see that Jesus' words and actions proclaim the Kingdom of God. This motif continues throughout Luke's passion narrative. Jesus appears to be in total command of events at the Passover meal as he hands over the kingdom to his disciples. He welcomes them to the Passover meal announcing that this will be his last until the Kingdom of God is fulfilled.

As throughout Luke's Gospel, however, the disciples show little understanding of this kingdom that Jesus often announces. Following the meal, the disciples argue about who is the greatest. Jesus takes the opportunity to distinguish the meaning of leadership in the Kingdom of God from the forms of leadership seen in the world.

Jesus initiates a conversation with Simon and predicts his denial. Jesus then instructs his disciples to prepare themselves for the events that will follow. His words reveal an awareness of the challenges that all of them will face in the days ahead. As the disciples and Jesus enter the Mount of Olives, Jesus indicates the importance of the disciples' time in prayer, telling them that through prayer they will be able to face the challenges ahead.

As he prays, Jesus is tested. In the garden, an angel is sent to strengthen him and to prepare him for the events ahead. After this moment, Jesus is again in charge of the events and circumstances.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus is portrayed as active and vocal throughout his passion. When one of the disciples strikes the high priest's servant, Jesus heals the man, an event reported only in the Gospel of Luke. Jesus stops the disciples' protest against his arrest by noting that this is the "time for the power of darkness." Jesus engages and responds when brought before the Sanhedrin; his words speak about the "power of God" that will bring about the reign of the Son of Man. When questioned by Pilate, Jesus responds with just one phrase; yet before Herod, Jesus refuses to speak.

When Luke describes the Way of the Cross and Jesus' crucifixion, he calls to our attention many events that are not reported in the other Gospels. Throughout his Gospel, Luke has paid heed to the women who accompanied Jesus. Now, on the road to Calvary, Jesus speaks to the women who walk with him. Only Luke reports Jesus' words of forgiveness spoken from the cross. And only Luke reports the dialogue between Jesus and the good thief. Finally, in contrast with the Gospels of Mark and Matthew, Luke reports no words of abandonment spoken by Jesus on the cross. Instead, Jesus, in full command until his death, commends his spirit to his Father and takes his final breath.

Throughout Holy Week, we will continue to reflect on the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son and brought to fulfillment the Kingdom of God. ■

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

The Easter Triduum is one liturgical celebration spread over three days that begins with the Evening Mass of the Last Supper on Holy Thursday, marking the passion and death of Christ on Good Friday and ending with the Mass of the Resurrection on Holy Saturday night or Easter Sunday. It marks the end of the 40 days of Lent and celebrates the Paschal Mystery, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council reminded us of the extraordinary significance of the Triduum: “Christ redeemed us all and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying He destroyed our death and rising He restored our life. Therefore the Easter Triduum of the passion and resurrection of Christ is the culmination of the entire liturgical year.” (General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, #18).

The Easter Triduum and the Easter Season which lasts 50 days, therefore, is not simply one feast among others, but as the catechism of the Church tells us, it is the “Feast of Feasts” and the “Solemnity of Solemnities” just as the Eucharist is the “Sacrament of Sacraments”. St. Athanasius called Easter, the Great Sunday and the Eastern Churches call Holy Week, the ‘Great week’. In other words, it is the Celebrations of Celebrations. It is what we celebrate every time we attend Mass – it is the very essence of our faith.

Considering that the Easter Triduum is one celebration spread over three days, as Catholics, we are urged to put aside our daily routines and make priority to attend, not just one or two, but all three liturgical celebrations on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and either the Vigil Mass of Holy Saturday or Easter Sunday Mass.

Monday, April 15th at 7:00 pm
Christ the King Cathedral, Hamilton

During this Mass, oils used for the sacraments in parishes are blessed and consecrated by Bishop Crosby and priest of the Diocese renew the promises made at Ordination. All are welcome to attend. Please remember priests in your prayers that day.
