MESSAGE FROM FATHER CULL

On the trip to the Toronto Blue Jays Game...

About 100 people attended the parish trip to see the Toronto Blue Jays host the Baltimore Orioles this past Wednesday. I am grateful to all those who organized this family friendly outing which brings parishioners together for a relaxing and enjoyable time.

On the Vacation Bible School...

The Vacation Bible School begins on Monday August 18th and concludes on Friday August 22nd. It is a special joy to welcome the children from Junior Kindergarten to grade 3 as they grow in their relationship with Jesus Who loves them. We are also blessed to learn from the children in their openness and receptivity to the goodness of God. I offer my thanks to Barb Boulanger and all the many volunteers who so generously plan and organize this event. Please keep the children and their leaders in your prayers.

On Father Robert Barron...

In anticipation of the six-part series by Father Robert Barron that I am planning to introduce this fall, I encourage you to visit his website at wordonfire.org. In addition to insightfully addressing various aspects of popular culture such as film and other media, he podcasts a homily for each Sunday which is very insightful. I found his recent critique of Bill Maher on the relationship between faith and reason to be particularly astute.

On visiting before the Blessed Sacrament . . .

During the months of July and August I warmly invite and encourage you to come by the church for some time of quiet and personal prayer. Please come to the office (located on the separate walkway to the left of the main doors of the church) during office hours and Eileen will let you in.

On the RCIA . . .

This process, through which adults become fully initiated members of our Catholic faith community, will begin again this Fall. If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and the possibility of becoming a Catholic, please contact Father Cull at the Parish Office. The process involves a weekly commitment to one hour sessions and participation at Sunday Mass. It is open to unbaptized adults, those baptized in other Christian churches, and Catholics who desire to complete their initiation.
