PARKING

Please be considerate of others in our parking lot. Kindly use one space per car. ActiVan drops off some of our infirm parishioners at the elevator - and may block that route for a moment or two - your patience is appreciated. Please do not block the fire routes or entrances of the parking lot.

SEEKING HOST FAMILIES

As part of Rotary International's Youth Exchange Program, the Rotary Club of Georgetown is hosting a 16 year-old boy from Thailand for the academic year 2009-10. He will be attending Christ the King Catholic Secondary School and the Rotary Club felt it would be appropriate to give Holy Cross parishioners the opportunity to host this young man for periods of approximately 10 weeks, commencing in the last week of August upon his arrival. Interested parishioners are invited to call the Parish Office and further information will be provided by the Rotary Club on this unique and rewarding program.

BAZAAR KNITTING

A number of the ladies at Mountainview Residence are knitting and crocheting items that will subsequently be donated to our Bazaar as well as the Christmas Bazaar at Mountainview. Any wool that can be used to make mittens, scarves, socks and trim for kitchen towels or squares for throws would be most appreciated. Fine crochet cotton can also be turned into angels for Christmas decorations. Please call Kay at 905-877-6189 for pick up or place your donation in a bag marked Mountainview Residence and drop it off in the container at the church entrance.
