FROM FATHER DAVE

For the past few weeks since my return from Rome I have been reflecting with gratitude on my years of service to Holy Cross Parish. I am very appreciative of the many good people with whom I have had the privilege to minister during this time. One of the exercises I like to do upon transferring from one parish to another is to look back at the celebrations of the Sacraments. These numbers reflect the abundance of God's grace poured forth upon His people as members of the Church. Since my appointment as Pastor of Holy Cross Parish, I have celebrated:

Baptisms	965
First Communions	1,704
Confirmations	2,010
Marriages	86
Funerals	247

Once again thanks to all who have helped with these celebrations over the years - our parish staff, Catholic school staff, marriage preparation team, and J. S. Jones & Son Funeral Home.
