REMEMBRANCE DAY

Each year on November 11 Canadians recall the memory of those who died in the service of our country in the world wars of the 20th Century and in other armed conflicts and peace-keeping missions in which our military forces have served. Today at the 11:00 a.m. Mass we will begin by formally recalling their noble memory and pray for the repose of their souls.

WEDDINGS FOR 2013

If you, or someone you know, wishes to celebrate marriage in Holy Cross Parish in 2013 we are now taking reservations for the FALL of 2013. Please note that the parish requires one (1) year's notice of marriage so that the necessary components of marriage preparation can be completed. Kindly contact the parish office for more information. Dates for 2014 are also being accepted. Weddings are normally celebrated on Saturdays, however, Friday afternoons are also available. In Canada, weddings may not be celebrated on Sundays. Catholics are required by Church Law to be married by a priest and two witnesses.

SANCTUARY LAMP

You may wish to donate the Sanctuary Lamp in memory of a deceased loved one. To do so, please contact the parish office.

The Book of Remembering the Dead has been placed near the baptismal font. Please inscribe the names of family members or relatives who have died in the past year. (If you have inscribed names in the book in previous years, there is no need to repeat them this year). All the names inscribed in the Book of Remembering the Dead are remembered at our Masses in the month of November.
