The Sunday Missal is best used at home to reflect on the Scripture readings before Mass. Pew cards with the responses of the new English translation will be placed in the pews to assist us with the new responses.

CONFIRMATION COMMITMENT CELEBRATION

Please pray for our candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation who will present themselves as candidates for this Sacrament at our Masses next weekend. Bishop Tonnos, our retired Bishop, is scheduled to confer the Sacrament on Friday, February 10 & Saturday, February 11, 2012.

SUNDAY MINISTRIES CHRISTMAS SIGN UP

Those who participate in our Sunday ministries are encouraged to indicate their scheduling preferences for our Christmas and New Year's Masses. Preference forms were sent with the last schedule - either by email or regular mail. Kindly return your preference response by Sunday, November 27th.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

If you are seriously ill at hospital or homebound please do not hesitate to contact the parish office for pastoral care. Our parish staff is only too happy to assist those in need of the Lord's healing presence through the Sacraments and the care of members in our community.

ROMAN MISSAL

These past two Sundays we have heard about the new English translation of the 3rd edition of the Roman Missal which will be fully implemented in the English-speaking world on Sunday, November 27th, 2011.

In Canada, that day will also see the implementation of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal which offers guidance and direction for the celebration of the Mass. It is important to note that there are some adjustments to our gestures which will take effect on November 27th.

Postures during Mass

The Bishops of Canada direct that ...

1. At the priest's invitation, "Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours be acceptable ..." the people stand and then respond, "May the Lord accept the sacrifice ..."
2. The common posture for the reception of Holy Communion is standing before the minister, however, those who choose to kneel will not be forced to stand.
3. An act of reverence, specifically a bow of the head, is to be made before receiving Holy Communion. Once the person ahead of us in the Communion procession has received and is walking away from the minister, we bow our head and then present ourselves for the reception of the Body of Christ - the same practice is followed when receiving the Precious Blood.

Other matters regarding Holy Communion ...

1. A Eucharistic Fast is to be observed by all receiving communion - the fast is one hour before reception in order to prepare ourselves for the Eucharist. Those who are sick, diabetic or otherwise unable are not bound by the rule of Eucharistic fasting.
2. There is one blessing at the end of Mass; a blessing for those who cannot receive Holy Communion is unnecessary. Only initiated Catholics, who have already received their first Communion, may present themselves for Holy Communion. Children should accompany their parents at Communion and are always acknowledged by the minister of Communion.
3. Receiving both the Body and Blood of Christ is encouraged as a fuller sign of the Eucharistic mystery. We do, however, receive the fullness of the Eucharist by receiving one species.
4. After the distribution of Holy Communion the ministers return to the Altar for the purification of the vessels. The extra-Ordinary ministers of Holy Communion will assist with the clearing of the Altar after Communion.
