HEALTH COMMITTEE UPDATE

Sunday, October 25th – A blood pressure clinic will be offered after the 8:30 a.m., 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon Masses for parishioners over the age of 18. This is a great way to have a registered nurse take your blood pressure, help you track it and give you advice on how to manage it. We had over 40 parishioners attend last month.

Tuesday, October 27th – Mass with Healing Prayer at 7:00 p.m. Jesus is our healer. Come open yourself to His healing and spend some time in prayer. The Blessed Sacrament will be available for up to 1 hour after Mass. Members of the St. Francis of Assisi prayer group will be available afterwards for individual prayer.

Low impact exercises - This program will start Thursday, October 29th from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon. Cost is $3.00 per person per session (pay as you go). Please bring your own set of weights (2 - 3 lbs), wear comfortable shoes and clothing. This program will be conducted in the church hall by Kerry Dennie, fitness instructor. The program is open to all adults, no babysitting available.

WELCOME SCHOOL COUNCILS

On Monday, October 26th we will welcome our parish's School Councils from our four Catholic elementary schools and Christ the King Secondary. These Councils will be inaugurated during a celebration of Evening Prayer which will be followed by presentations and a reception in the parish hall. Please pray for the members of our School Councils and all involved in the ministry of Catholic education in our community.

MONTH OF REMEMBERING THE DEAD

The month of November is traditionally a time to remember those who have died. A special Book of Remembering the Dead will be placed in the sanctuary during November - in it you may inscribe the names of your relative and friends who have died. On Sunday, November 1st at the 12:00 Noon Mass we will remember those who have died in our parish this past year. Prayers at Greenwood cemetery will be offered next Sunday at 3:00 p.m. All are welcome.

MARRIAGE QUESTIONS ...

Who can be married in the Catholic Church?

A man and a woman may be married in the Catholic church provided that one party to the marriage is a Catholic; also provided that both are free to enter into marriage in the Catholic church.

What if my fiancé is not a Catholic?

A Catholic may enter into marriage in the Catholic church with someone who is baptized in another Christian church or with an unbaptized person. In both cases the permission of the local bishop is required and obtained through the parish priest. A non-Catholic does not have to become a Catholic in order to marry in the church.

Does a Catholic have to be married in a Catholic church?

Catholics are required, by Church (Canon) Law, to be married in the presence of an ordained Catholic deacon, priest or bishop and two witnesses of their choosing. Marriage is always celebrated in a church or chapel. A wedding ceremony (involving a Catholic and a baptized Christian) may take place in a non-Catholic church or chapel, with permission of the local bishop. Catholic weddings are not celebrated in gardens, backyards or reception halls.

What about separated and divorced Catholics?

Sadly, marriages do fail and it can become impossible for the couple to continue to live together. The teaching of the Church is that so long as that former spouse is living, one cannot enter into a new marriage unless the previous one has been declared null by the Church.

Separated and divorced Catholics are not prevented from receiving the Sacraments - especially the Eucharist - which will often be a source of comfort and strength for them.

What about a divorced Catholic who remarries?

A divorced Catholic who remarries, without a declaration of nullity from the Church for the previous marriage, are invited to a life of faith, prayer, charity and chastity. They may not receive sacramental absolution or Holy Communion, or exercise certain ministries within the Church, as long as their situation persists.

The Diocesan Marriage Tribunal assists individuals who seek the church's judgement on the validity of a previous bond of marriage in the hope of entering a new marriage in the Church.

Please pray for our couples preparing for marriage in our parish in the coming year.
