NOVEMBER 17TH, 2019 THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We Celebrate....We Believe

Congratulations to our catechumens as we celebrated the next step in the initiation process with them last week. Each time we celebrate a liturgy there is an opportunity for mystagogical reflection. A time to look back and re-experience the deeper meaning of what we celebrated. To facilitate this we can answer these questions for ourselves: What did you see? (be specific) What did you hear? (be specific) and answer for yourself – What does this say about God? What does this say about Church? So often, like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus, we don't recognize the presence of Christ until the moment has passed. Each liturgical celebration is an encounter with our living God. Take some time to reflect on what you saw and heard and then consider, what does this say about God? What does this say about church?

We continue to hold our catechumens and candidates in our prayers as we journey in faith: Alicia, Arianna, Brandon, Catherine, Chloe, Eliana, Hamilton, Jennifer, Kudzai, Paulo, William.

Thanksgiving Appeal

As the annual thanksgiving appeal winds down we wish to thank you for your support of St. Michael's by your gift to the appeal. It is the most important request for financial support that we have each year and its success is directly a result of your gifts. Thank you for your generosity. The appeal is open year round.

CWL News - St. Michael's CWL membership drive is continuing this weekend. Members will be in the Narthex following all Masses today and for the next two weeks to renew memberships and to welcome new members. Our fee is $25.00. Did you know through Resolutions, the CWL of Canada has affected public policy at both provincial and federal levels on topics such as mental health issues, pornography, bicycle helmets for all ages and banning tanning beds for minors. For a full list see www.cwl.on.ca/resolutions.

We Celebrate....We Believe - The Dismissal.

Have you been at a mass and wonder why the catechumens, (those to be baptised at Easter) are invited forward after the Homily to leave the assembly? They are leaving to feast on the Word of God. As those journeying to sacraments of initiation, they are not able yet to feast at the Eucharistic Table. Instead, they are dismissed and Break Open the Word of God. They prayerfully read the gospel proclaimed that day and share how that scripture speaks to them today and how they feel called to respond to God's living Word.

We continue to hold our catechumens; Alicia, Arianna, Brandon, Jennifer, Catherine, Chloe, Eliana, Hamilton, Kudzai, Niika, Sophia, and William and their families in prayer as they journey.
